

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER OF 4D MOLECULAR THERAPEUTICS, INC.

This Compensation Committee Charter (this “Charter”) was adopted by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of 4D Molecular Therapeutics, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), on November 25, 2020, and last amended on September 30, 2025.

I. Purpose

The purpose of the Compensation Committee of the Board (the “Committee”) is (1) to assist the Board in discharging the Board’s responsibilities regarding: (a) the establishment and maintenance of compensation and benefit plans, policies and programs designed to attract, motivate and retain personnel with the requisite skills and abilities; (b) the compensation of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”), the Company’s Non-CEO Executive Officers (as defined herein) and the Company’s non-employee directors; and (c) compliance with applicable compensation laws, rules, regulations and guidelines, including but not limited to those promulgated by the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”).

In addition to the powers and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities delegated to it by the Board from time to time consistent with this Charter, the purposes of the Committee, the Company’s bylaws (as in effect from time to time) and applicable law. The powers and responsibilities delegated by the Board to the Committee in this Charter or otherwise shall be exercised and carried out by the Committee as it deems appropriate without requirement of Board approval. While acting within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to it, the Committee shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board.

II. Composition

The Committee shall be composed of at least two (2) directors as determined by the Board, each of whom shall satisfy the independence and other eligibility requirements of the Nasdaq rules (except as otherwise permitted by Nasdaq rules), as amended from time to time and meet all other applicable independence standards for members of compensation committees, unless otherwise determined by the Board.

The members of the Committee, including the Chairperson of the Committee (the “Chair”), shall be appointed by the Board. Committee members may be removed from the Committee, with or without cause and with or without prior notice, by the Board. Unless a Chair is designated by the Board, the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership. Any action duly taken by the Committee shall be valid and effective, whether or not the members of the Committee at the time of such action are later determined not to have satisfied the requirements for membership provided herein. The members of the Committee will serve until resignation, retirement, or removal by the Board or until their successors shall be appointed.

III. Meetings, Procedures and Authority

The Chair (or in his or her absence, a member designated by the Chair) shall preside at each meeting of the Committee and set the agendas for Committee meetings. The Committee shall have the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company's bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

The Committee should meet as often as it determines advisable to fulfill its duties and responsibilities. Meetings of the Committee may be called by the Chair upon notice given at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting, or upon such shorter notice as shall be approved by the Committee. The Chair shall designate a secretary for each meeting who shall record minutes of all formal actions of the Committee. A majority of the Committee members, present in person or by phone or videoconference, shall constitute a quorum. A majority of the members present shall decide any questions brought before the Committee, except to the extent otherwise required by the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws (each as in effect from time to time). Unless otherwise restricted by the Company's bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Committee may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Committee consent thereto in writing (including by electronic transmission), and such writing (including any electronic transmission) is filed with the minutes of the Committee.

The Committee may, at its discretion, include in its meetings members of the Company's management, compensation and benefits consultants or any other person whose presence the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the CEO and other officers may not be present during voting or deliberations concerning his, her or their compensation, and the Committee may exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate, including, but not limited to, any non-employee director who is not a member of the Committee.

Consistent with applicable requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and Nasdaq listing standards, the Committee shall (i) have the sole authority to retain and/or replace, as needed, any independent legal counsel, compensation and benefits consultants and other outside experts or advisors as the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate (collectively, "Compensation Advisors"); (ii) be directly responsible for the appointment and determination of compensation and oversight of the work of any Compensation Advisor(s) retained by the Committee; (iii) subject to any exceptions under Nasdaq listing standards, undertake an analysis of the independence of each Compensation Advisor under the independence factors specified in the applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and Nasdaq listing standards, with such analysis to occur prior to selection of such Compensation Advisor and as appropriate thereafter; and (iv) have such additional authority and responsibility as may be required from time to time under the rules and guidelines of the Exchange Act and Nasdaq listing standards. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company's regular legal counsel or other advisors to the Company as Compensation Advisors. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, for payment of compensation to any Compensation Advisor(s) retained by the Committee.

The Committee shall keep regular minutes of any meetings where actions are taken (unless such actions are taken and reported to the Committee's satisfaction in the minutes of the Board meetings). Any such minutes kept by the Committee shall be distributed to each member of the Committee. The Corporate Secretary shall maintain the original signed minutes for filing with the corporate records of the Company. The Chair, or any member of the Committee as requested by the Board, shall report to the Board regarding the activities of the Committee at appropriate times and as otherwise requested by the Chairperson of the Board.

IV. Duties and Responsibilities

1. General Responsibility. The Committee shall have generalized supervisory responsibility for the compensation policies applicable to all employees of the Company, including periodic reviews of the adequacy of the Company's compensation structure, performance review procedures, employee turn-over and retention, and other human resource issues. The Committee shall receive periodic reports on the Company's compensation programs as they affect all employees.

2. CEO Compensation. With respect to the CEO compensation, the Committee shall review the CEO compensation in light of market trends in executive compensation and make recommendations to the Board regarding the compensation of the CEO based on such review. The Committee shall, periodically and as and when appropriate, review and recommend for approval by the Board the following as they affect the CEO: (a) any employment agreement and severance arrangement; (b) any change-in-control agreement and change-in-control provisions affecting any elements of compensation and benefits; and (c) any special or supplemental compensation and benefits for the CEO and individuals who formerly served as CEO, including supplemental retirement benefits and the perquisites provided to them during and after employment. The Board shall retain the authority to: (x) approve the corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation, (y) evaluate CEO performance in light of such corporate goals and objectives, and (z) approve the compensation of the CEO; provided, however, the Board may, from time to time, delegate such authority to the Committee.

3. Other Executive Officer Compensation. With respect to the compensation of the other executive officers who have been designated by the Board as Section 16 officers as provided in Rule 16b-1(f) of the Exchange Act, together with any Senior Vice President level or above executive who is not designated a Section 16 officer (each, a "Non-CEO Executive Officer" and collectively, the "Non-CEO Executive Officers" and with the CEO, the "Executive Officers"), the Committee shall, at least annually, (a) recommend to the Board the corporate goals and objectives relevant to the Executive Officer compensation, (b) evaluate Non-CEO Executive Officer performance in light of those goals and objectives and (c) approve all compensation of the Non-CEO Executive Officers based on such evaluation. The Committee shall evaluate the Company's performance against the corporate goals and objectives and make a recommendation to the Board with respect to the achievement of such goals. The Committee shall, periodically and as and when appropriate, review and approve the following as they affect a Non-CEO Executive Officer: (x) any employment agreement and severance arrangement; (y) any change-in-control agreement and change-in-control provisions affecting any elements of compensation and benefits; and (z) any special or supplemental compensation and benefits for a Non-CEO Executive Officer, including supplemental retirement benefits and the perquisites provided to them during and after employment. The Committee shall report to the Board all material compensation determinations relevant to the Non-CEO Executive Officers.

4. Director Compensation. The Committee shall periodically review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the compensation of the Board's non-employee directors.

5. Incentive and Equity Compensation. The Committee shall oversee the Company's compliance with the requirement under Nasdaq rules that, with limited exceptions, stockholders approve equity compensation plans. Subject to such stockholder approval, or otherwise required by the Exchange Act, the U.S. Internal Revenue Code or other applicable law and the terms of such plans, the Committee shall have the power to establish, amend, manage, periodically review and, where appropriate, terminate all annual bonus, long-term incentive compensation, stock option, employee pension, and welfare benefit plans, including but not limited to 401(k) plans, employee stock purchase plans, equity incentive plans, cash-based plans and arrangements, and management incentive plans. With respect to each such plan, the Committee shall have general administrative responsibility.

6. Other Compensation Oversight. The Committee shall determine the Company's policies with respect to change of control or "parachute" payments. The Committee shall monitor the Company's compliance with applicable legal requirements of the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002 and the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act relating to employee compensation and benefits.

7. Compensation Disclosure and Analysis. The Committee shall review and discuss with management of the Company the Compensation Discussion and Analysis (the "CD&A"), and based on such discussions, determine whether to recommend to the Board that the CD&A be included in the Company's proxy statement and annual report on Form 10-K, if required to be included therein.

8. Compensation Committee Report. The Committee shall review the annual Compensation Committee Report for inclusion in the Company's annual proxy statement and annual report on Form 10-K, if required to be included therein, in compliance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC.

9. Committee Self-Evaluation. The Committee shall, periodically and with input from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board (the "Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee") if deemed appropriate, perform an evaluation of the performance of the Committee and its members, including a review of the Committee's compliance with this Charter, and provide any written material with respect to such evaluation to the Board or the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, as appropriate, including any recommendations for changes in procedures or policies governing the Committee.

10. Risk Assessment. The Committee shall periodically review and assess risks arising from the Company's compensation policies and practices and whether any such risks are reasonable likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company, including whether the Company's incentive and equity compensation plans encourage excessive or inappropriate risk taking.

11. Review of this Charter. The Committee shall, at least annually and with input from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee if deemed appropriate, review and reassess this Charter and submit any recommended changes to the Board for its consideration.

V. Delegation of Duties

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee shall be entitled to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee, but only to the extent consistent with the Company's certificate of incorporation, bylaws, applicable laws, regulations and the Nasdaq rules. To the extent permitted by applicable law and the Company's equity-based plans, the Committee may delegate to one or more executive officers of the Company the authority to grant equity-based awards to employees of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company who are not executive officers.
